African Art Month highlights the work of Dutch artist Catharina van den Heever, a graduate of the Academy of Art, The Hague (2011). Catharina's work deals with the environment – it explores how humans shape our world and interact with nature. The Cruise (2009) Oil on Canvas 85 x 77 cm Cartoon The Cruise (2009) Oil on canvas 85 x 77 cm The images in The Cruise are derived from the paintings that Catharina has created for a trip to Sri Lanka. She has designed a yacht for the trip and the resulting paintings are inspired by this concept of freedom, or the freedom from constraints of modern life, and the capacity to open oneself to new experiences and encounters with nature. Patience & Endeavour (2009) Oil on Canvas 85 x 77 cm Paintings Original The images in Patience & Endeavour are based on photographs that Catharina took during a visit to Scotland. These are small, regional landscapes that show the close relationship between the light in the Scottish landscape and its reflection in the water. Catharina's playful use of color and composition is a departure from her previous work, which was more varied and abstract in nature. Book Structure (2009) Oil on Canvas 85 x 77 cm f678ea9f9e
